1. General

1.1. Scope of Application

These product terms shall be applicable to Posti Ltd's (Posti) domestic address-labeled goods transport services (Services). The Services are available to corporate and organizational customers, and their use requires a contract with Posti. In addition to the Product Terms, the Services are subject to the contract signed between Posti and the Customer as well as Posti Ltd's General Contract Terms ("the General Contract Terms") and the Finnish Act on Road Transport Contracts.

These terms are valid from October 3, 2016, until further notice.

1.2. Customer's obligations

In addition to what has been stated in the General Contract Terms, the Customer shall be responsible for instructing senders or recipients that are not parties to the agreement to comply with the provisions specified in this contract.

The Customer shall use the Delivery Time Inquiry to ensure that the selected Service is possible for the location in question and that the selected supplementary services are possible in connection with the selected Service. If the Customer's choices are in conflict with each other or the shipment, Posti has the right to deviate from the Service ordered by the Customer as laid down in section 1.15.

The Customer shall be responsible for ensuring that correct and up-to-date name, address, and payment information and any other markings required by the Service are indicated on the shipment. The name and Finnish mainland address of the sender must always be indicated on the shipment for its possible return.

The Customer shall provide the information required for the service on the transport document and the electronic order message.

The delivery destination must provide direct access.

The Customer shall be responsible for the use of Posti's transport documents. The Customer shall pay the price specified in the price list in force for the Service also after the expiry of this Contract if deliveries have been sent using Posti transport documents with the Customer's contract number for invoiceable service.

1.3. Definitions

A shipment refers to goods or a batch of goods listed in the transport document to be transported from a single location and one sender to another single location and one recipient on the same occasion.

Transport document refers to the address label which, in addition to identifying and directing the shipment, serves as an invoicing document.

Delivery Time Inquiry is a Posti service for checking the areas and locations in which Posti's goods transport services are available and for checking the delivery time or other service level for the location.

A Pickup Point is a Posti outlet (including parcel points) from which the recipient can pick up shipments. The Pickup Points available at each time are specified in Posti's register of Pickup Points.

1.4. Leaving shipments for transport

The Customer may leave a shipment at Posti's service point by the deadline specified there, or Posti picks up the shipment from the sender by separate agreement.

1.5. Shipment content restrictions and LQ Process Permit

The restrictions for the content of shipments are specified in the General Contract Terms, unless otherwise specified on a product-by-product basis. The restrictions can be checked on Posti's website.

The LQ Process Permit service can be used for easy sending of very small quantities of LQ-packed goods. Unlike other dangerous goods transport services, shipments sent through the LQ Process Permit service can be taken to a Pickup Point and Posti's VAK (dangerous goods) tape is not attached to the shipment. LQ Process Permit is not possible with Express freight.

1.6. Handover of shipments

A shipment transported to the delivery address is handed over against a signed receipt to a person present at the address.

Shipments picked up at an outlet are handed over to the person requesting the shipment using the shipment ID.

Shipments delivered to Posti's Parcel Points are handed over against a code sent to the telephone number, e-mail address, etc., specified by the sender.

Registered shipments are handed over only to the recipient or a person authorized in writing by the recipient.

Shipments are handed over against a signed receipt. At a parcel terminal, entering the correct code is considered equal to a signature.

Shipments that include delivery to the recipient are delivered to the recipient's address in a location to which Posti's vehicle has direct access.

Express freight shipments are unloaded on the recipient's loading platform or another suitable place in the immediate vicinity of Posti's vehicle.

1.7. Delivery time and service levels by route

The delivery time and available Services based on the shipment's source and delivery address can be checked using the Delivery Time Inquiry function on Posti's website.

1.8. Delivery days

Shipments are picked up and delivered on weekdays (Mon–Fri) only, unless otherwise specified in the product terms.

1.9. Transport documents

Each package in a shipment of goods must include an appropriate transport document with a unique shipment ID. Supplementary services must be marked in each transport document.

Delivery services include Posti's adhesive address labels and the use of the address label printing software. NCR address labels are subject to a separate charge. Posti will deliver transport documents to the address specified in the Customer's contract as ordered by the Customer. The Customer may also use another address label or printing software approved by Posti in advance at their own cost. The transport document of the customer to be invoiced must always state the Customer's contract number.

The Customer may only use the same shipment ID once during a year when printing address labels.

Posti Ltd1.10. Pricing and payment

Pricing is based on the number of packages and the measured weight or cubic content of the package, whichever is higher. In addition, pricing depends on the shipment-specific maximum size and the shipment's handling options. The cubic measure used for parcels is 1 m³ = 250kg. If the actual weight or volume cannot be determined, the default invoicing weight is 250 g.

The pricing of express freight shipments is based on the number of packages, the mailing batch, the transport unit type, the delivery zones, and the supplementary services used. Shipments larger than the transport platform are subject to Posti's oversized transport unit fee.

Any fuel surcharges specified on Posti's website valid at the time are invoiced separately.

The services are invoiced on a weekly basis, unless otherwise agreed. Posti will invoice for tasks not included in the Services ordered by the Customer in accordance with the price list in force.

1.10.1. Payer other than the sender

If the shipment is paid for by someone other than the sender, the Customer must specify this in connection with placing the order.

1.11. Shipment tracking

Posti registers at least the receipt of the shipment at the sorting center and handing over or attempted handing over to the recipient.

The delivery information is available in Posti's tracking system on the weekday following the delivery date.

1.12. Storage period for shipments to be picked up

Outlets and Parcel Points store shipments for fourteen (14) and seven (7) days, respectively.

Express freight shipments and TDG shipments are stored at terminals for seven (7) days.

1.13. Amendments to the delivery address

The sender or recipient may place a one-time order for re-transporting a shipment delivered to a postal outlet other than the Posti outlet or pickup outlet subject to a charge. Redelivery at the recipient's request will be made only once for the same shipment.

Recipients may place an order to redirect the delivery of their shipments to an address other than the delivery address indicated on the shipment.

Such assignments may delay the delivery of the shipment by 1–2 days from the delivery time for the original route. Posti's responsibility for the delivery time promise for the Service ends when the shipment is redirected by the recipient.

1.14. Return to sender

If a shipment cannot be returned for a reason not attributable to Posti, such as an incorrect or incomplete address on a shipment, the recipient refusing to accept the shipment, or the recipient failing to pick up the shipment by the end of the retention period, the shipment will be returned as an Unclaimed Shipment.

The transport charge of a returned shipment is charged to the original payer. If the shipment cannot be returned to the sender, it is processed as undeliverable in accordance with the General Contract Terms.

1.15. Posti's right to deviate from the Service ordered by the Customer

Posti has the right to deviate from the Service ordered by the Customer if the Services selected by the Customer are in conflict with each other or the shipment. Posti aims to carry out the Service in a way that secures the benefit of the Customer. In case of a conflict, Posti may amend the main product or supplementary services. If the Customer's shipment does not comply with the requirements of the product selected by the Customer, Posti shall be entitled to process and invoice them as a Service the characteristics of which correspond with those of the Customer's shipment.

If the Customer has selected a service level that is not possible for the route of the shipment, Posti shall nevertheless be entitled to charge for the service level selected by the Customer.

1.16. Damages

Posti's liability shall be determined in accordance with the Act on Road Transport Contracts and the General Contract Terms. Posti always compensates for damage incurred during transport to its customers. The Customer shall be entitled to transfer the right to damages to a third party by informing Posti of Posti Ltd this in writing in connection with the processing of the claim.
