In addition to the pricing agreed with the customer, Posti has the right to add VAT and a fuel surcharge to the price. Should the customer require services not included in the agreed service complying with the terms and conditions, Posti shall be entitled to charge fees for any additional services it provides. Freight increases are charged on a shipment-specific basis in accordance with the total freight weight indicated in the waybill. Customers must agree on services in advance with Posti. Service fees apply for Domestic freight services as well as Home delivery service.
