Scope of Application

These product terms will be applied to the contract signed between Posti Ltd (Posti) and the customer about the Early-Morning Delivery to Companies and Housing Companies service, in which delivery will take place to a delivery location different from the delivery location included in the publication subscription price. Posti's General Contract Terms for Business Customers are applied complementary to these product terms.

Early-morning delivery to companies and housing companies service

With the service, the Customer can place their mailbox in a location other than the mailbox location specified for the publication subscription address location. Posti will deliver publications in Posti's early-morning delivery with the address specified in the Early-Morning Delivery to Companies and Housing Companies contract to the location agreed with the Customer (mail slot or mailbox) instead of the mailbox location according to the address. The Service will not affect other delivery.

The Service cannot be suspended for a fixed term. Any delivery interruption has no effect on the invoicing for the service.

The Service is only available in areas where Posti early-morning delivery is available on every weekday (Mon-Sun). The Service is not available in areas where newspapers are delivered as part of basic delivery on weekdays (Mon-Fri) and to a separate shared mailbox/pickup point at weekends or where they are regularly delivered to shared mailboxes or pickup points.

Publications will be delivered to companies according to the area's early-morning delivery service level. It is also possible to agree on the delivery point being located inside the building if the mail carrier has continuous direct access to the premises.
